Intellectual Property

The specialists of Korpus Prava have extensive experience in registration of intellectual property rights and registration of the rights to these objects (if necessary).

We work with such facilities as:

- trademarks and service marks
- patents
- trade secrets (know-how) and ways of doing business (business methods)
- software and databases

The main types of services rendered by Korpus Prava in the field of intellectual property are:

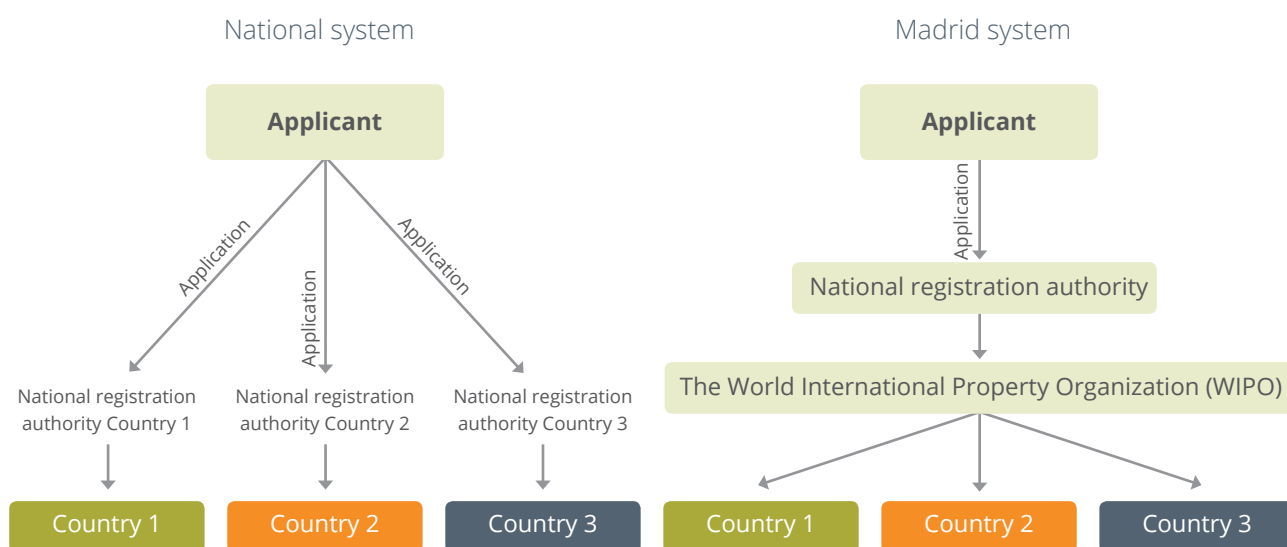

- drawing up and registration of trademarks and service marks
- drawing up and registration of patents
- drawing up and registration of software and databases
- drawing up of the rights to trade secrets and business methods
- registration of license agreements
- obtaining court orders that allow agreements to set conditions restricting competition, the use of the doctrine of deprivation of rights and coordination of a special regime of using the rights (in Cyprus)
- protection of rights against unfair competition (in Cyprus)

Trademark registration

The experts of Korpus Prava can register rights for trademarks with the national legislation of Russia, Cyprus, EU or in the Madrid System.

The main advantages of the “Madrid system” are:

- Filing of a single application for registration of a trademark concerning all countries of the Madrid Treaty
- Significant reduction of application costs
- The possibility of subsequent “extensions” of the international registration
- A simplified system of subsequent “service” of the registration by sending a single request for making changes, renewal, transfer of the rights for all countries of registration
